Improving your grant experience

Organisation Name: Autism Community Network
Submission Reference: PGCYWQG
Application Id: 4-7XMIUPU

Dear Mr Drakoulis

Thank you for taking the time to apply for the National Disability Conference Initiative grant opportunity. I am writing to inform you that on this occasion the application titled “Bringing Better Educational Options for Autistic children” was not successful.

Applications received under the National Disability Conference Initiative grant opportunity were assessed in accordance with the Community Grants Hub (the Hub) Policies and the Grant Opportunity Guidelines.

The Hub encourages you to apply for future grant funding. Funding opportunities administered by the Hub are published on our website. If you are interested in receiving notification of upcoming grants and opportunities for funding, you can subscribe to receive email alerts when new information is published.

These and other opportunities are also published on the GrantConnect website, the Australian Government’s grants information system.

Individualised feedback is not available for this grant opportunity, however, the Hub publishes feedback for all applicants on our website to provide organisations with information about the assessment process, main strengths and areas of improvement for any future applications.

Once again, thank you for your interest in this grant opportunity.
